"MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN PEOPLE'S SMILES"

To Whom It May Concern:

May 18, 2019

I learned on the Internet that Mike Greenly is a master wordsmith. I realized that he writes speeches and presentations for executives and their teams around the world and coaches their effective delivery on-stage.

But although I'm not like the big organizations he's supported ... I'm not ExxonMobil or Johnson & Johnson, I'm just a dentist ... I reached out to Mike in 2011 for the marriage of my daughter, Abbey. I was hoping for a great Father of the Bride speech and was glad he took on the assignment: he did an amazing job!

This year, I turned to him once more – this time for Kelly's wedding. And wow, he did it again. Not just in writing a speech I am so proud to give, but also in coaching my performance (simply over the phone!) The result? Another brilliant piece of work from a guy who's clearly the best at what he does.

I decided I should share my satisfaction about Mike Greenly and his services. It's not just that he's outstanding at what he does; he's also a pleasure to work with. Just as he promises, he has helped me to sound like myself ... but better than I could ever have done without his help. Mike gets my top recommendation!

Sincerely,

John Hartman, DDS
